

COLOMBO INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL, SRI LANKA

Are you a young, bright, enthusiastic graduate, able to inspire students to excel in a country where education really is a number one priority? Are you an experienced or recently retired teacher looking to continue a rewarding career in a country with a rich cultural and educational heritage? If so, why not consider coming to teach for a few years in the tropical, exciting paradise that is Sri Lanka? This opportunity is open to single teachers and teaching couples.

Colombo International School is a prestigious, long-established Private Day School, with branches in the centre of Colombo and in the historical hill-town of Kandy. It delivers high quality English medium education (from Reception through to A Level) to a mixture of Sri Lankan and Expatriate students, who are bright, ambitious and a delight to teach.

Results are excellent and outstanding. All students go on to Universities overseas, mostly in the UK, USA and Australia. Currently, there are former students at a host of top Universities, including Oxford, Cambridge, LSE, Imperial, Harvard, Princeton, MIT, Melbourne and at many other prestigious universities in Europe, the USA, Australia and Asia.

The Staff (of over 200) consists of a blend of Local and Expatriate teachers. The latter come on two-year initial contracts, though many choose to stay much longer than that. Also the Principal and the Educational Consultant of the School are both expatriates of British nationality.

There are openings for the 2010/11 academic year and beyond in the following subject areas:

Senior Section: Mathematics, Geography, Physics, English, French, Economics; Business Studies (all to Edexcel A Level and IGCSE) and Classical Civilisation (AQA).
