

NATIONAL GOLF SQUAD SELECTED

By SHAMSEER JALEEL

THE Sri Lanka Golf Union (SLGU) selected the National squad recently after the trial encounters conducted at the Royal Colombo Golf Course (RCGC) early this month.

Eleven players were selected for the National Men's squad and two players were selected for the National Women's squad.

Meanwhile four players booked their place in the Men's B while one player booked her berth in the Women's Development Squad.

Giving encouragement for the youngsters SLGU also selected eight players for the Men's C development outfit.

Some sensational young golfers are included in

National Squad Men's – A

Chanaka Perera, Chalitha Pushpika, Danusha Perera, Januka Dilshan, Lamidu Ranika, U A Ranasinghe, Haroon Aslam, K Danushan, G I Dilranga, Nirekh Tejwani and Yannik Kumara

Development Squad – Men's – B

Roshana Prasad, W N Waidyarathna, Reshan Algama and R Sureshan

Development Squad Men's – C

R M S Rupasinghe, Levon Niayarapala, R D C Rajapakse, H G C P Chathuranga, Musa Shariff, Vinuda Weerasinghe, Buddhika Jayalath and Shanala Binushka

National Squad Women's

Taniya Balasuirya and Kaya Daluwatte

Development Squad Women's

Sheerin Balasuriya

the National list. Yannik Kumara (British School) and Haroon Aslam (Trinity College) are two who got into the National outfit trainings.

Meanwhile 13-year-old Reshan Algama moved himself into the development outfit with his hard work, commitment and consistent performances in the recent past.

Training will resume once health conditions returns to normal.

We would like to congratulate Nirekh Tejwani and Reshan Algama who have been selected for the National Squad Men's – A and the Development Squad – Men's B respectively, after taking part in the Sri Lanka Golf Union trials earlier this month.

We are looking forward to seeing these two talented young golfers do CIS proud when they can resume training once more!