

PAST STUDENT RAVEEN KARIYAWASAM

We are so very proud of our past student, Raveen Kariyawasam, who has become the first Sri Lankan in 54 years to secure a Rhodes Scholarship to study at the University of Oxford. Raveen attended CIS from the age of 3 and successfully graduated in July 2017 having secured five A levels, with 3A* grades and 2A grades, including the highest score in the world in Biology.

To read the full article, please click on the link below

<https://www.sundaytimes.lk/220904/education/raveen-kariyawasam-clinches-rhodes-scholarship-to-study-at-oxford-first-sri-lankan-in-54-years-to-do-so-493877.html>

We are thrilled that Raveen is coming into school to give a presentation to the Sixth Form on Tuesday 16th September, which will no doubt be highly inspirational.