Vesak Celebrations

The Vesak Assembly, held on Wednesday, 27th May, was a celebration of light, wisdom, and compassion, beautifully embodying the spirit of Vesak. Our senior students commemorated this sacred occasion through thoughtful speeches, engaging presentations, and devotional songs that inspired reflection and nurtured a deeper appreciation of compassion, mindfulness, and the timeless teachings of the Lord Buddha.

*Hatred does not cease by hatred,
but only by love; this is the eternal rule.*

Siddhārtha Gautama

The Ice Cream Dhansala organised by the Language Society brought the community together in the spirit of generosity and charity.

INTER-HOUSE VESAK LANTERN COMPETITION

During the first break on 27th May, the Courtyard transformed into an ethereal display of colour and creativity as each house presented its own interpretation of the significance of traditional Vesak lanterns. The stunning craftsmanship and artistic originality on display left the judges deeply impressed, making the task of selecting the winner extremely challenging. After much deliberation, Green House emerged as the winner. In spite of the competitiveness, the event brought students together in the true spirit of Vesak and its enduring values of compassion, harmony, and enlightenment inspired by the teachings of the Lord Buddha.
