

CIS EXCELS AT THE SRI LANKA MODEL UNITED NATIONS 2015

A young team of highly accomplished students from CIS were awarded the SLMUN 2015 coveted Shigadry Climate Change Award in recognition of their most outstanding project to curb carbon emissions. It was presented at the SLMUN 2015 conference held from the 14th to 16th August 2015 at the BMICH in Colombo.

In addition the CIS delegation received a record number of prestigious best delegate awards and a host of other higher commendation and special achievement awards which enabled CIS to retain its leading position of outstanding success and achievements at the SLMUN conference which is conducted annually in Sri Lanka. Details of awards are as follows:

Award	Committee	Awarded to:
Best Delegate	UNFCC	Dmitry Kahandawa
Best Delegate	GA6	Viren Beruwalage
Best Delegate	UNHRC	Ashanee Kottage
Higher Commendation	GA1	Natasha Mamuhewa
Higher Commendation	UNESCO	Rishane Dassanayake, Sivagami Devanayagam
Honorary Mention	GA3	Ranali Perera
Honorary Mention	ECOSOC	Savant Gamage
Honorary Mention	HOSST	Nishad Gunawardena
Honorary Mention	SC	Pravin Steele
Special Award for Up and Coming Delegates	GA1	Mevin Manamperi
Special Award for Up and Coming Delegates	UNHRC	Senal Wijethilake
Best Foreign Policy Statement	GA1	Kiran Kandasamy
Best Foreign Policy Statement	GA3	Eshana Amarasinghe
Best Foreign Policy Statement	UNHRC	Senalka Wickramaratne

Further information on the Colombo International School's ongoing project to reduce carbon emissions can be found at www.cis4change.com

CIS team of winners