

CIS Emerges in the top 3 at SLMUN 2016!

The CIS delegation for Sri Lanka Model United Nations emerged among the top 3 schools with CIS maintaining its track record of outstanding success and excellence at Model United Nations after three days of intense debate, diplomacy and months of dedication and hard work. Under the training of one of CIS' Alumni's most coveted debaters Kithmina Hewage, each delegate performed to the best of their ability as a collective group taking forward the CIS legacy of smart students and highly accomplished diplomats. The following are the impressive range of Awards secured by the CIS team from Honorary Mentions to Higher Commendations :

The First General Assembly

Kenula De Alwis - Honorary Mention - People's Republic of China

The Third General Assembly

Eshana Amarasinghe - Higher Commendation - Botswana

The Historical General Assembly

Sivagami Deivanyagam - Higher Commendation - People's Republic of China

The African Union

Ranali Perera - Honorary Mention - Botswana

The United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime

Ashanee Kottage - Honorary Mention - People's Republic of China

The Futuristic Economic and Social Council

Rishane Dassanayake - Honorary Mention - Botswana

The Security Council

Savant Gamage - Higher Commendation and Best Foreign Policy Statement - People's Republic of China

* Special Award for Best Crisis Committee Delegation

Ashanee Kottage and Kenula De Alwis as the Delegation of The People's Republic of China

International Press Corps

Dinul Hettiarachchi - Best Journalist

This conference was an enlightening and enriching experience for every single delegate and the administrative staff. The MUN society hopes to speed up this momentum by reaching upto new heights in achievement and recognition in the upcoming conferences to take place in the future.